Getting to Hull Truck Theatre from Hull Rail and Bus Station

This is Hull Paragon Rail and Bus Station.

If you are coming to Hull Truck Theatre on a bus or train you will get off here.

Travelling by train

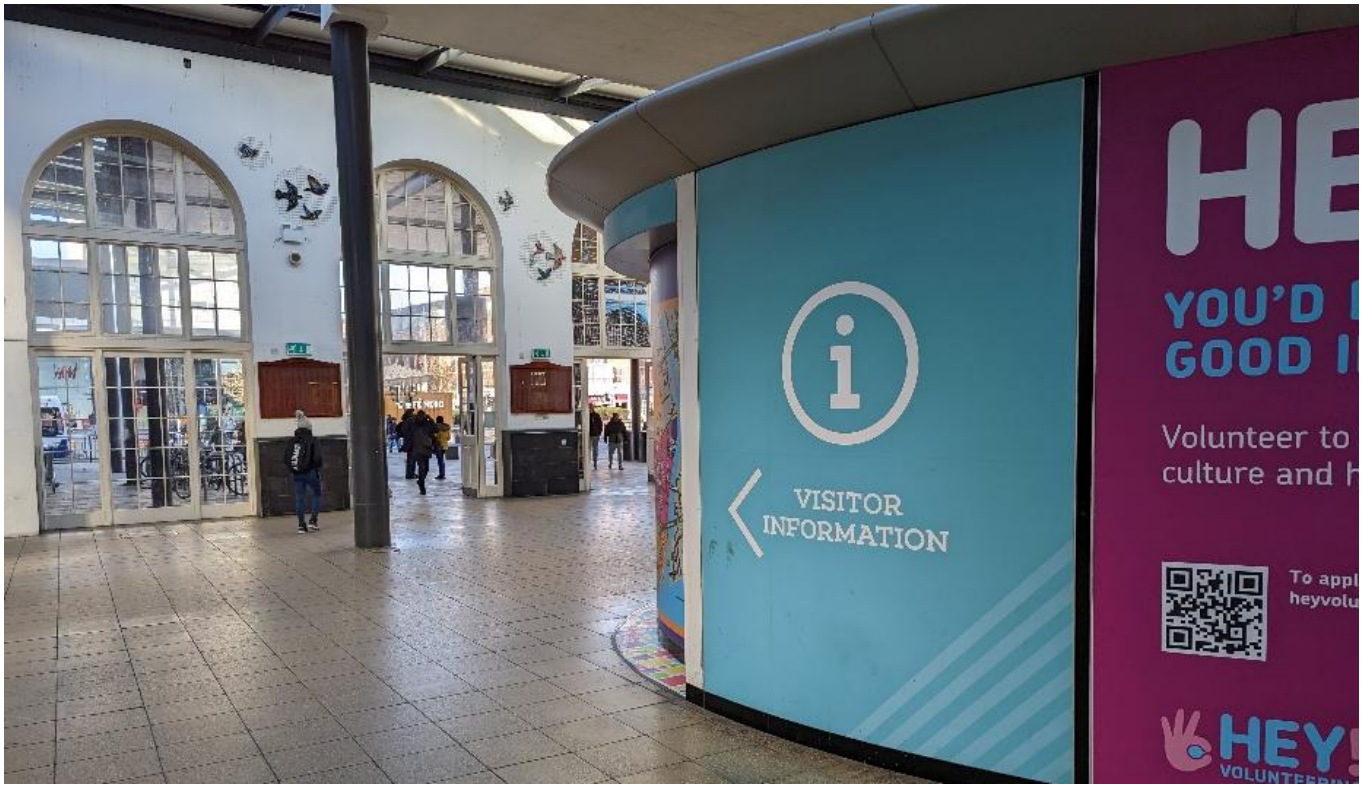
If you are travelling by train, you will get off the train on a platform here.

You will need to go through some barriers and may need to show or scan your ticket.

As you pass through the exit barriers you will see the Larkin statue. Turn left.

Go towards, and then past, the tall green clock.

On the right, through the arches, you will see the Information Hub.



Tip – You can use the hub as a place to look out for. The friendly hub volunteers are more than happy for you to ask them for directions to Hull Truck Theatre.

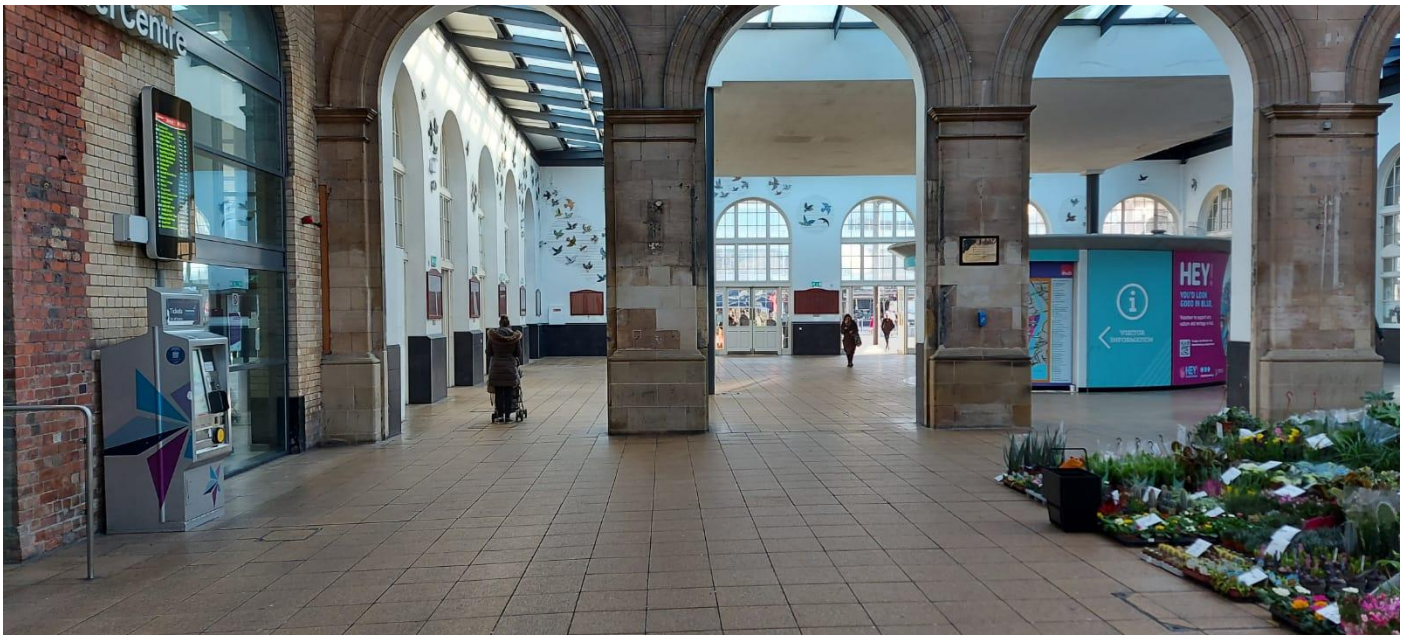
At the Information Hub, exit the station through the doors in the photo.

Now go to page 7 and follow the instructions to get to Hull Truck Theatre.

Travelling by bus

If you are travelling by bus, you will get off in the interchange here.

Go towards the Information Hub and through the arches.



Tip – You can use the hub as a place to look out for. The friendly hub volunteers are more than happy for you to ask them for directions to Hull Truck Theatre.

At the Information Hub, exit the station through the doors on the left.

Now go to page 7 and follow the instructions to get to Hull Truck Theatre.

From outside the station to Hull Truck Theatre (Steps 1-6)

1. You will see a crossing and Caffe Nero across the road.

2. Cross the crossing and go towards Caffe Nero

3. When you get to Caffe Nero go around it, to the right.

4. In front of you is St Stephens Shopping Centre and the Superdry Store. Go towards Superdry.

5. Keep going straight ahead so that the Superdry Store is on your left.

6. You will pass the Holiday Inn Express on the left and Hull Truck Theatre is directly in front of you.